The Japanese Government has drawn the attention of the Council to the situation at present existing in Manchuria. As a result of recent events, banditry has increased in certain districts, and constitutes a danger for the safety of the life and property of the inhabitants. In these circumstances, the Japanese Government considers that its forces should be entitled to repulse attacks by bandits not only, as has been the custom in the past, when these attacks took place in the South Manchurian Railway zone, but also should they be directed against localities outside the zone temporarily occupied by Japanese troops. It goes without saying that when these localities cease to be so occupied, the responsibility for their defence against bandits would cease to fall on the Japanese forces, and would be again assumed by the Chinese authorities.

AIDE-MÉMOIRE

présenté par Mr. ITO, pour expliquer le texte dont il est heureux de recommander l'adoption par le Comité de Rédaction nommé par le Conseil.

Au stade des délibérations où se trouve actuellement le Conseil, il serait désireux d'arriver à un texte auquel la Délegation japonaise au moins puisse adhérer.

Tout d'abord, je voudrais suggérer au Comité de Rédaction de prendre comme base de discussion, le projet de Résolution qui a été rédigé par certains membres du Conseil, afin d'accélérer le travail du Conseil.

Je ne proposerai au Comité de Rédaction que des modifications indispensables pour rendre claire, au point de vue juridique, les idées qui sont contenues dans ledit projet de résolution.

A mon avis, le Conseil ferait bien d'adopter dans les circonstances actuelles un système qui, sans tenir strictement compte de sa jurisprudence coutumière, correspondrait davantage à la réalité de la situation pour mettre au clair le caractère tout particulier du conflit qui est porté devant le Conseil en vertu de l'article II du Pacte. Dans cet ordre d'idées, je voudrais suggérer d'abord un texte élastique de projet de résolution, pour éviter la critique de créer un précédent qui soit préjudiciable pour le fonctionnement futur du Conseil de la Société dans les circonstances analogues mais différentes de celles actuellement en question. Pour combler cependant les lacunes qui puissent se produire de la brièveté du projet de résolution, je voudrais suggérer le système de commentaire au projet de résolution dont le Président du Conseil donnera lecture après l'adoption du projet. De cette manière, on pourrait combiner un projet de résolution succinct incorporant des idées générales, et accompagné d'un commentaire qui est indispensable pour mettre en relief l'existence d'un cas d'urgence.

Inspiré des considérations ci-dessus, je voudrais présenter aux membres du Comité de rédaction d'abord un texte du projet qui exprime en termes succincts les grandes lignes contenues dans le projet de résolution rédigé par certains membres du Conseil, et ensuite un texte qui, sous forme de commentaire, pourra être prononcé par le Président du Conseil après l'adoption de la résolution pour mettre au clair la signification de la résolution, pour montrer le caractère tout particulier, justifiant l'existence d'un commentaire approprié dans la circonstance.

II.

Voici le texte du projet de la résolution.

The Council,

- 1.—Re-affirms the resolution passed unanimously by it on September 30th, by which the two Parties declare that they are solemnly bound, calling upon the Chinese and Japanese Governments to take all steps necessary to assure its execution.
  - 2.—Considering that events in Manchuria and in other parts of China have assumed an even more serious aspect since the Council Meeting of October 24th, takes note of the declaration made by the Chinese and Japanese Representatives of their intention of their Governments to refrain from any initiative which may lead to further fighting and loss of life and to take all measures necessary to avoid any further aggravation of the situation.
  - 3.—Invites the two Parties to continue to keep the Council, which remains seized of the question, informed as to the development of the situation.
  - 4.—Invites the other Members of the Council to furnish the Council with information received from their representatives on the spot.
  - 5.—Without prejudice to the carrying out of the above mentioned measures and desiring, in view of the special circumstances of the case, to contribute towards a definitive and fundamental solution of the questions at issue between the two Governments.
- Decides to appoint a Commission of three members to study on the spot and to report to the Council on any circumstance which, affecting international relations, threatens to disturb peace between China and Japan, or the good understanding between them upon which peace depends.

The Governments of China and of Japan will each have the right to nominate one assessor to assist the Commission. It is understood that should the two Parties initiate any negotiations these would not fall within the scope of the terms of reference of the Commission nor would it be within the competence of the Commission to interfere with the military arrangements to be made by either Party.

The appointment and deliberations of the Commission will not prejudice in any way the engagement taken by the Japanese Government in the resolution of September 30th as regards the withdrawal of the Japanese troops within the railway zone.

III.

Voici le texte du commentaire que le Président du Conseil prononcera après l'adoption de la résolution ci-dessus.

- 1) En ce qui concerne le paragraphe 1er de la Résolution, je voudrais attirer l'attention du Conseil sur le fait que ce paragraphe ne fait que renforcer la Résolution adoptée unanimement par le Conseil le 30 septembre dernier d'après laquelle le Représentant du Japon a déclaré que son Gouvernement poursuivra aussi rapidement que possible le retrait déjà commencé de ses troupes pour les ramener dans la Zone du Chemin de fer; dans la mesure où la sécurité de la vie de ses ressortissants et la protection de leurs biens seront effectivement assurées, en espérant réaliser complètement cette intention dans le plus bref délai.
- 2) En ce qui concerne le paragraphe 2 de la Résolution, je voudrais exprimer mon ardent espoir que les commandants de l'armée chinoise et japonaise recevront les ordres stricts pour mettre en exécution la disposition contenue dans le présent paragraphe, étant entendu que rien n'interdit les forces japonaises de prendre de telles mesures qui soient indispensables pour protéger la vie et les biens des sujets japonais contre les activités des bandits et des autres éléments sans loi existant en Mandchourie.
- 3) En ce qui concerne le paragraphe 5 de la Résolution, je déclarerai:
  - a) que chacun des gouvernements chinois et japonais aura le droit d'indiquer au Président de la Commission toute question dont il désire un examen particulier;

- b) que la Commission aura une complète liberté pour obtenir toute information qu'elle désire;
 c) que la Commission pourra, si elle le désire, présenter des rapports intérim au Conseil.

Preliminary Draft Resolution.

The Council,

1.—Recalls and re-affirms the Resolution passed unanimously by it on September 30th, by which the two Parties declare that they are solemnly bound. (Alternative)

(A) It therefore reiterates its request to the Chinese and Japanese Governments to take all steps necessary to assure the execution of the said Resolution.

(B) It therefore calls upon the Chinese and Japanese Governments to take all steps necessary to assure its execution so that the withdrawal of the Japanese troops into the railway zone, in proportion as the safety of the lives and property of Japanese subjects is effectively assured, may be carried out as speedily as possible.

2.—Considering that events in Manchuria and in other parts of China have assumed an even more serious aspect since the Council Meeting of October 24th, notes that the two Parties undertake

(a) to exercise every possible precaution to preclude any initiative which may lead to further fighting and loss of life; it is understood that nothing in this Resolution shall preclude the Japanese forces from taking such measures as may be needed for the protection of the lives and property of Japanese subjects against the activities of bandits and other lawless elements in Manchuria.

(b) to take all measures necessary to avoid any further aggravation of the situation.

3.—Invites the two Parties to continue to keep the Council, which remains seized of the question, informed as to the development of the situation.

4.—Invites the other Members of the Council to furnish the Council with information received from their representatives on the spot.

5.—Without prejudice to the carrying out of the above-mentioned measures,

The Council,

Desiring, in view of the special circumstances of the case, (Alternative)

(A) To secure a thorough comprehension of the questions at issue between the two Governments,

(B) To contribute towards a definitive and fundamental solution by the two Governments of the questions at issue between them,

Decides to appoint a Commission of three members to study on the spot and to report to the Council on any circumstances which, affecting international relations, threatens to disturb peace between China and Japan, or the good understanding between them, upon which peace depends.

The Governments of China and of Japan will each have the right to nominate one assessor to assist the Commission. It is understood that should the two Parties initiate any negotiations these would not fall within the scope of the terms of reference of the Commission nor would it be within the competence of the Commission to interfere with the military arrangements of either Party. (No restriction of movement will be placed on the Commission, which will have complete freedom to obtain all information it may desire.)

The appointment and deliberations of the Commission will not prejudice in any way the engagement taken by the Japanese Government in the Resolution of September 30th as regards the withdrawal of the Japanese troops within the railway zone.

N.B. The President after the adoption of the resolution will state:—
 (a) that each of the two governments will have the right to indicate to the Chairman of the Commission any question the examination of which it particularly desires;
 (b) that the Commission may, should it so desire, furnish the Council with interim reports.

DRAFTING COMMITTEE'S PROPOSAL, FOR PARAGRAPH IN PRESIDENT'S DECLARATION.

With respect to paragraph 2, it is evident that such provisions are essential if normal conditions are restored. There is however one point which requires elucidation. In the special conditions prevailing at present in Manchuria the administrative machinery of government is seriously compromised. There are districts in which many bandits and lawless bands endanger the lives and property of the inhabitants, some of whom are Japanese subjects. In the circumstances it has been strongly pressed upon the Council that it may prove necessary as an exceptional measures for the Japanese Government during the period before evacuation is complete to take, if such a danger renders it necessary, police measures sufficient to provide directly for the safety of its subjects. In the very exceptional conditions that prevail the Council could not take upon itself to rule out altogether action of that kind. Nevertheless, and even assuming that such action is confined strictly to police purposes, it is liable to lead to grave misconception and the increase of tension between the two countries concerned. I am glad therefore to learn that both Governments are ready to give an opportunity to neutral observers to accompany any operations of the kind. This is really only the special application to this case of the general invitation given to neutral observers by both Governments.

The Council,

1. Reaffirms the resolution passed unanimously by it on September 30th 1931, by which the two parties declare that they are solemnly bound. It therefore calls upon the Chinese and Japanese Governments to take all steps necessary to assure its execution, so that the withdrawal of the Japanese troops within the railway zone may be effected as speedily as possible under the conditions set forth in the said resolution.

2. Considering that events have assumed an even more serious aspect since the Council Meeting of October 24th, Notes that the two Parties undertake to adopt all measures necessary to avoid any further aggravation of the situation and to refrain from any initiative which may lead to further fighting and loss of life.
  3. Invites the two Parties to continue to keep the Council, which remains seized of the question, informed as to the development of the situation.
  4. Invites the other Members of the Council to furnish the Council with any information received from their representatives on the spot.
  5. Without prejudice to the carrying out of the above-mentioned measures, Desiring, in view of the special circumstances of the case, to contribute towards a final and fundamental solution by the two Governments of the questions at issue between them, Decides to appoint a Commission of five Members to study on the spot and to report to the Council on any circumstances which, affecting international relations, threatens to disturb peace between China and Japan, or the good understanding between them, upon which peace depends.
- The Governments of China and of Japan will each have the right to nominate one assessor to assist the Commission.
- The two Governments will afford the Commission all facilities to obtain on the spot whatever information it may require.
- It is understood that should the two Parties initiate any negotiations these would not fall within the scope of the terms of reference of the Commission, nor would it be within the competence of the Commission to interfere with the military arrangements of either Party.
- The appointment and deliberations of the Commission shall not prejudice in any way the undertaking given by the Japanese Government in the resolution of September 30th as regards the withdrawal of the Japanese troops within the railway zone.
- Should the undertakings given by the two Parties according to the resolution of September 30th not have been carried out by the time of the arrival of the Commission, the Commission shall as speedily as possible report to the

PRELIMINARY DRAFT STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT 4/XII/31.

It will be observed that the resolution which is before you provides for action on two separate lines: (1) to put an end to the immediate threat to peace; (2) to facilitate the final solution of existing causes of dispute between the two countries.

The Council was glad to find during its present sittings that an enquiry into the circumstances which tend to disturb the relations between China and Japan, in itself desirable, would be acceptable to the Parties. The Council therefore welcomed the proposal to establish a Commission which was brought before it on November 21st. The final paragraph of the resolution provides for the appointment and functioning of such a Commission.

I shall now make certain comments on the resolution paragraph by paragraph.

Paragraph 1. This paragraph reaffirms the resolution unanimously adopted by the Council on September 30th, laying particular stress on the withdrawal of the Japanese troops within the railway zone on the conditions described therein.

The Council is persuaded that the two Governments will set themselves to the speedy and complete fulfilment of the engagements which they assumed on September 30th.

Paragraph 2. It is an unfortunate fact that since the last meeting of the Council events have occurred which have seriously aggravated the situation, and have given rise to legitimate apprehension. It is indispensable and urgent to abstain from any initiative which may lead to further fighting, and from all other action likely to aggravate the situation.

Council on the situation with such recommendations as it may think fit.
6. Between now and its next ordinary Session, which will be held on January 25th, 1932, the Council invites its President to follow the question and to summon it afresh if necessary.
