

Diplomatic Archives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of 1a

Diplomatic Archives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ja

RM'-0002

外交史料館

Diplomatic Archives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Janas

FLEET ACTIVITIES YOKOSUKA

附外

LIBERTY

YOKOSUKA

1. Commencing 12 September 1945, limited liberty will be granted to Navy personnel in the city of YOKOSUKA subject to the following provisions.

- (a) Until further notice only 2000 fleet personnel can be accommodated.
- (b) Liberty hours will be from 1200 to 1730 for enlisted men and shore leave for Officers will expire at 1800.
- '(c) Liberty cards are required for enlisted men.
- (d) Each ship sending a liberty party ashore should have an officer in charge plus one Patrolman for each twenty men. Men should be cautioned not to straggle but to remain in groups.
- (e) Uniforms for liberty will be undress white with neckerchiefs.
- 2. The Fleet Landing is situated ½ mile west of Building Ways directly across from the Fleet Officers Landing. It will be indicated by large sign and should not be confused with the Fleet officers landing or recreational landing within the Navy Yard.
- A Marine Provost Marshal will be in general charge of all patrol activities and Fleet shore patrol Officers and men will report to him on landing. Location of head-quarters is indicated on enclosure A. Also indicated is the area in which liberty is granted. Inyone gound beyond this area will be arrested and confined.
 - 4. The Provost Marshal and native police have posted signs in English placing certain parts of the city out of bounds to all Naval Personnel.

 These signs must be scrupulously obeyed.
 - 5. A MP booth will be available for necessary information concerning customs of the country, location as (to?) shopping and recreation area, etc.
 - 6. Only Japanese currency will be used. No U.S. currency is permitted ashore. The official rate of exchange is fifteen (15) Yen to ONE U.S. dollar. The townspeople are attempting to put price tags in English, but in case these tags are absent men should be cautioned not to pay exhorbitant prices. 7. The Mayor, civil police and civilians have been cooperative in this area but personnel must be made to realize the differences eximiting existing as to language, customs and the tenseness of the present situation so that their behavior will not result in misunderstanding. 8. Prostitution is rampant here and a large majority of the prostitutes are infected with a venereal disease. Looting and pilfering will be drastically handled. O. O. KESSING Commodore, U.S.N.

外交史料食

外交史料館

Diplomatic Archives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of 1s

Diplomatic Archives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ja

National Archives of Japan

RM'-0002

外交史料館

Diplomatic Archives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ja

Diplomatic Archives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ja